Lost Creek Ranch & Spa is a family-oriented, Western-style guest ranch with world-class amenities, gourmet meals and state-of-the-art spa facility.

Mestled between towering mountains just north of Jackson, Wyoming, the Lost Creek Ranch & Spa is a family-owned, Western-style guest ranch with world-class luxuries, gourmet meals and a state-of-the-art spa facility. The service is exceptional as educated, experienced and trained professionals tend to guests' needs in a ratio that's nearly one-to-one.

During a seven-day visit to the ranch, delight in thousands of marked hiking and horseback trails, pilates and yoga classes, a tour of neighboring Yellowstone National Park, a scenic float trip, a youth activity program, and evening entertainment - not to mention skeet shooting and trapshooting with a trained instructor, remarkable fly fishing on the Snake River, and two award-winning golf courses.

As if that isn't enough, catering to each guest's needs with wholesome foods made from fresh ingredients is the hallmark of the dining room. While parents feast on dinners such as lobster-claw salad prime rib with mushroom demi-glace on shitake mushrooms and leeks, children can eat "kids' food" with their new friends.

After dinner, vacationers retire to rustic-looking but fully modern cabins, which have been praised for their Old West elegance. Each cabin contains two bedrooms with soft mattresses and warm quilts to provide a deep sleep after a full day of activity or relaxation.
